

Exercises

1. Present the steps of virtual network configuration on the example of Mikrotik router. In configuration at least three virtual networks should be used.
2. Perform a security test of individual VLANs (are they really isolated), and demonstrate that configuration within the same virtual network works without problem.